George Nichols Sails the Acushla to Victory Over Other Fifty-Footers; Late Arrivals Last Night Swell the Fleet to Fully One Hundred Vessels

By Jack Lawrence

MORRIS COVE, Conn., July 27 .- H. H. Shonnard's Sonnica, a achty, black schooner with rakish lines and a lot of speed under light was the first vessel of the New York Yacht Club fleet to cross the off this port to-night after a long and somewhat tedious voyage stirty-nine miles from Glen Cove Breakwater. She led a squadron of ty-four racing boats into port and won the first leg of the New York Acushla, the property of L. Gordon Hammerslee, was the first of the York Yacht Club's fifty-footers to finish, being closely pursued by Commodore George Nichols's Carolina. Acushla was sailed by Bob whiteelt, of New Rochelle, and in registering his victory to-day he feated some of the best amateur skippers in the world.

The Duffer's Parodic Outburst

Once upon a midnight dreary (Words you've doubtless seen before) As I pondered, wan and weary, Over my erratic score,

As I thought of strokes I'd flivvered While my jumping pulses quivered, Suddenly I groaned and shivered, On the level I was sore,

"I am through forever more."

As this promise I delivered:

But next day the sun was shining (As the sun has shone before) And I felt my raw soul pining For the game I loved of yore. Yea, I mourned for drives I'd pasted And for short putts I had wasted, For the breeze that I had tasted the longest hitter I ever saw."

Five times we made vain attempts to talk baseball. No use. The veteran manager and club owner, who was one of the game's greatest pitchers when Cy Young was still a Paoli farmer, had at last found the fure of another game that five years ago he had considered a joke. And if any duffer around ninety-five is looking for easy picking he had better let C. Griffith alone.

In conclusion Mr. Griffith expressed his willingness to take on either Ring Lardner or Tiny Maxwell over an 18-hole jaunt if the public demand became sufficiently hoisterous.

Gayly Bedecked Gallery
Creavy, who looks every bit the real athlete he is, had the touch and made good use of it. He hammered out birdies so rapidly the news quickly spread to the clubhouse that a dark horse was after the record, and by the time the youngster had turned into the stretch he had a gayly bedecked gallery.

Former Caddy Big Sensation On Golf Links

William Creavy Covers the Course in 68, Tying Record; Farrell Also Star

By Ray McCarthy

By Ray McCarthy
For six years William Creavy and Johnny Farrell were caddying at the Siwanoy Club. As caddies they were in Class A, and as embryo golfers they showed all the earmarks of coming stars. To-day both of them, now full-fledged professionals, are struggling for the metropolitan open championship on the same course over which they once caddied, and each has a grand chance of carrying off the title. They are starting the third round this morning only a step behind the fast-flying Cyril Walker, of the Englewood Country Club, who is still running well in the van in good form.

Creavy's performance was the for-

For the breeze that I had tasted

When the wind was off the shore.

So I grabbed a ball and laced it

As I loudly clamored "Fore!"

Ed. Note.—While making no pretense to orthodoxy, we confess at as rhymes "tasted" and "laced it" may not be precisely par. But no cares?

Times and Customs

Last week in Washington we ran across an old college chum by the me of Clark Griffith. It was not the Washington ball park, but out on the Columbia golf course.

"This. Ruth is some hitter," we remarked.

"Some hitter?" countered Griff; "say, watch this Abe Mitchell. He's elongest hitter I ever saw."

Five times we made vain attempts to talk baseball. No use. Johnny Wilson Wins, But Loses His Title

CLEVELAND, July 27. — In a scheduled twelve-round no decision contest here to-night between Bryan Downey, of Cleveland, and Johnny Wilson, champion middle-weight, Referee Jimmy Gardner, of Boston, gave the decision to Wilson in the seventh recedian wilson had been knocked down three times in this round on a foul.

Wilson had been knocked down three times in this round and Gardner had counted seven on the third knock-down when he claimed Downey struck Wilson while he as down and gave the decision to Wilson.

A small sized riot foll of the decision. Downey had knocked Wilson down in the third round for a tount of two.

J. B. Wilberding, of the Cleveland Resign Commission annuagesed

J. B. Wilberding, of the Cleveland Boxing Commission, announced that the commission gave the fight to Downey on a knockout. Wilberding said that the official time of the first knock-down in the seventh round was 16 seconds and the second knock-down was 13 second, and that if a foul was committed it was by Wilson's manager jumping into the ring while the count was going on.

Selling Stakes To Wellfinder

Joan Marie Drags Barrier All the Way and Finishes a Fine Second

Harry Payne Whitney's Wellfinder. leverly handled by Coltiletti, ran off with the Tarrytown Selling Stakes, the

with the Tarrytown Selling Stakes, the feature of an ordinary card at Empire City yeakerday. The Quincy Stable's Joan Marie was second and F. J. Kelley's Guy'nor a poor third the race was marred by Joan Marie getting tangled up in the barrier at the start, and she carried the webb's with her all through the race.

Although she was at least fifteen lengths out of it coming around the turn with the starting ribbon shooting back of her like a streamer, Joan Marie came on with a great burst of speed and finished second, only three lengths back of Yeelfinder. Guy'nor quit to a walk after turning for home and finished second, only three lengths back of Joan Marie. The helter brigade went after Wellfinder as soon as he was offered for sale. He was bid up from $2,500 to $4,500 by Frank Bain and Steve Judge. The stable retained him for the usual extra five.

The Western contingent put over a real melon cutting when F. J. Kelley's Janku nosed out J. S. Cosden's Tricks in the opening race. Janku was well supported by the paddoc, hugch at 15 to 1.

After trying all kinds of tackle,

After trying all kinds of tackle, Knight of the Heather was run in a hood in the second race and finally made good, winning in a common canter by six lengths from Scotch Verdict, which beat Walnut Hall five lengths for the place. The hood worn by the Knight had the right eye entirely covered, while the left eyehole did not even have the customary cup around it. Whoever rigged up the contraption must have a keen knowledge of Knight of the Heather's faults, for the gelding broke like a scared deer and never left the result in doubt.

the result in doubt.

Only two, Edwina and Quecreek, came out for the third race, a mile dash, for three-year-olds and upward.
Quecreek was made an odds on favorite, but after giving contention for about five furlongs tossed up the sponge.

Fourteen very ordinary platers made up the field for the fifth event. Saddle Ring, carrying the colors of J. F. Hall, the Kentucky horseman, won the race after a hard fought finish with Granny sylvania-Cornell dual meet will start at 4 o'clock.
